About the Conference....

In hyper-connected, fast moving world the 114th Mar Thoma Students' Conference is an invitation to pause, reset and root your life in Christ to impact the world. Bringing together students from different campuses and parishes, the conference offers a journey of worship, learning, fellowship, and renewal—enabling you to discover your identity in Christ, embrace your God-given purpose, and step out as bold torchbearers of faith in your home, college, workplace, and the world.
